

Cold Applied BUR

Cold Applied BUR as an effective roof membrane in Colorado. Learn about the ease of application, flexibility and low VOC's that make Cold Applied BUR a possible solution for your next project.

Wednesday October 28, 2020

2:00-4:00 PM

Zoom Meetings

$30.00 per person (Earn CEU's)

Cold Applied BUR saves on labor and equipment costs and is environmentally friendly. Learn about the chemical makeup, applications, and installation methods for this versatile roof membrane.

You will learn the following during this seminar

1. Background of BUR
2. Types of BUR
3. Applications
4. Issues with Hot asphalt
5. Cold Applied BUR (intro)
6. Chemical Makeup (similarities and differences between hot & cold BUR)
7. Different type of systems
 - Acrylic coated systems
 - Granulated or ballasted
 - Traffic surface
8. Case studies (including cost savings)

Presented by:

Vincent Martinez- Technical Sales Support Specialist, Western Colloid

Kelly Sitzer – CIG Construction, Commercial Roofing Contractor

Register at www. https://iibeccolorado.org/

Or email seminars@roofingeducation.org for more information